GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS COHN TO BOARD OF CHIROPRACTIC EXAMINERS

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed R. Ernest Cohn of Wilkesboro to the North Carolina Board of Chiropractic Examiners.

Cohn is a physician at the Holistic Medical Clinic of the Carolinas. He is a member of the American Chiropractic Association, American College of Chiropractic Orthopedists, and American College for the Advancement of Medicine. Cohn has published five books and reviewed courses in orthopedics. Cohn received his Doctorate in Chiropractic and X-Ray proficiency from the Palmer College of Chiropractic, his Medical Doctorate from UNIREMHOS School of Medicine and his Naturopathic Medical Doctor degree from American University of Integrative Medicine.

The board regulates the practice of chiropractic in North Carolina to determine the qualifications of individuals seeking to practice chiropractic, authorizes persons who have met the statutory requirements with the privilege to practice and enforces the statutory provisions governing the practice of chiropractic. There are eight members on the board, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints six members. The Senate President Pro Tempore and the Speaker of the House each appoints one member.
